

WIN FIRST GAME AT LYNCHBURG

Shoemakers Get Initial Defeat From Norfolk on Home Grounds.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., August 4.—Defeating the Shoemakers this afternoon 3 to 2, Norfolk won her first game here this season. The game was a beautiful one, each pitcher having unusually fine support, but Brandon owes his defeat to a pass, followed by two singles in the opening inning. This was followed in the fifth by Johnson's single, an infield out, and Busch's ground-er to right, and it gave the Tars a lead that was enough to win.

CLOSE FINISHES IN TASLEY RACES

Track Slow at First, but Gets in Good Condition for Final Events.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Tasley, Va., August 4.—The racing at Tasley Fair continues a great attraction. To-day opened with sweltering heat. A heavy downfall of rain made the track slow for the first three heats, when old Sol again appeared and soon had the track in good condition for the remaining races which were fast and interesting.

The 216 trot was also very close, Charlie Mitchell, of Newry, Del., and Bolton G. Shabou, Stock Farms, Baltimore, holding neck and neck, until the home stretch, Charlie Mitchell winning by a neck.

In the second heat of the 216 trot, Bug Boy, Fair Oaks, gave Charlie Mitchell a good run for first money, Mitchell winning in a close shave.

Five attempts were made to get the horses under the wire in the first heat of the 216 trot on account of the pole horse being crowded.

Lit and Expedition, Jr., were ruled out in the fourth heat of the 216 trot. Little Sweetheart was ruled out in the fourth heat of the 216 trot.

Star Short Stop Expected to Leave for Richmond To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Short-stop Baker of the Richmond team, was stricken ill here last night with acute appendicitis, and for eighteen hours an operation seemed necessary. This afternoon, however, Baker began to feel better, and it was expected that he would leave for Richmond, where he would be operated on.

Baker's parents, in Baltimore, were communicated with, and they expressed an opinion that he has had several shorter attacks during this season.
